

MoneyGram Foundation Shines Spotlight on Global Education-Focused Grant Recipients

December 30, 2019

Education initiatives will potentially impact more than 50,000 children

DALLAS, Dec. 30, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- MoneyGram International, Inc. (NASDAQ: MGI), a leading global money transfer and payment services company, today announced its latest education initiatives through the MoneyGram Foundation. The Foundation, established to help children around the world gain access to educational facilities and learning resources, is proud to recognize 23 organizations who were the recipients of Foundation-backed, education-focused grants in 2019.

Chosen from a competitive group of more than 300 inquiries, these standout organizations were notable for their effective and innovative methods to address the critical educational needs of children. Awarded grants stand to make a substantial global impact, benefiting organizations in 16 different countries, with the potential to positively influence more than 50,000 children in the coming year.
