Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On September 30, 2019, MoneyGram International, Inc. (the “Company”) announced the appointment of Kamila K. Chytil to the position of Chief Operating Officer, effective September 30, 2019. Ms. Chytil, age 39, has served as Chief Global Operations Officer since May 2016. Ms. Chytil joined the Company in May 2015 as Senior Vice President of key partnerships and payments. From 2011 to May 2015, Ms. Chytil was Senior Vice President and General Manager of retail payments at Fidelity National Information Services, Inc., a global provider of financial technology solutions, where she was responsible for e-commerce, check cashing and retail payments. From 2004 to 2011, Ms. Chytil held various other management roles at Fidelity National Information Services, overseeing analytics, risk management, and operations.

There are no arrangements or understandings between Ms. Chytil and any other person pursuant to which she was selected as an officer of the Company. Ms. Chytil is not related to any executive officer or director of the Company.

There have been no transactions since January 1, 2018, nor are there any currently proposed transactions, to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries was or is to be a party, in which the amount involved exceeds $120,000 and in which Ms. Chytil had, or will have, a direct or indirect material interest that is required to be disclosed pursuant to Section 404(a) of Securities and Exchange Commission Regulation S-K.

In connection with her appointment as Chief Operating Officer, Ms. Chytil will receive an annual base salary of $550,000 and a promotional long-term incentive award granted on October 1, 2019, with a grant date value of approximately $800,000. Approximately 75% of the promotional long-term incentive award will be delivered in performance cash and the remaining 25% will be delivered in restricted stock units. The performance cash awards will vest in three equal installments on each anniversary of the grant date if certain performance goals are achieved, with up to 75% of the performance cash awards eligible to vest over such three-year period if a target level of Adjusted EBITDA is achieved for the year ended December 31, 2019 and up to 25% of the performance cash awards eligible to vest over such three-year period if a target level of adjusted total revenue on a constant currency basis is achieved for the year ended December 31, 2019. The restricted stock units vest in three equal installments on each anniversary of the grant date.

In her role as Chief Operating Officer, Ms. Chytil will be eligible for an annual cash bonus under the Company’s Performance Bonus Plan with a targeted payment of 100% of her base salary. She will continue to be eligible for annual long-term equity awards in an amount to be determined by the Human Resources and Nominating Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company.

In addition to these benefits, Ms. Chytil will continue to be eligible to receive benefits offered to other executive officers of the Company.

MoneyGram Announces Appointment of Kamila Chytil to Chief Operating Officer

DALLAS, Sep. 30, 2019 /PRNewswire/ - MoneyGram International, Inc. (NASDAQ: MGI), a global provider of innovative money transfer services, today announced the appointment of Kamila K. Chytil to the position of Chief Operating Officer, effective September 30, 2019.

Having most recently served as MoneyGram's Chief Global Operations Officer, Chytil has played an integral role in leading MoneyGram's digital transformation and driving operational efficiencies and cost savings across the organization. Under her leadership, the Company has overhauled its IT infrastructure, enhanced its cybersecurity capabilities, migrated to an agile environment, and started its cloud migration journey. Additionally, she has been responsible for launching MoneyGram's consumer-centric digital products across the globe.

In her new role, Chytil's current portfolio of strategy, global operations, information technology, and product will be expanded to also include global marketing and digital revenue.

"I am extremely excited to announce the appointment of Kamila Chytil to the role of Chief Operating Officer at MoneyGram," said Alex Holmes, MoneyGram's Chairman and CEO. "Kamila has been a tremendous asset to MoneyGram since she joined us in 2015. Her track record of success across multiple areas of our Company has distinguished her as an exceptional leader. As we reposition MoneyGram for success in this increasingly digital world and continue our transformational journey to become a consumer-centric Company, I know her insights and leadership will prove invaluable to our success."

Chytil joined MoneyGram in 2015 as Senior Vice President of Key Partnerships and Payments, where she led the efforts to build and grow relationships with MoneyGram's largest partners in addition to owning revenue responsibilities for MoneyGram online and the Caribbean region.

Prior to MoneyGram, Chytil spent 11 years at FIS serving in multiple operational, analytics and risk management roles focusing on traditional financial services as well as retail and financial products for the underbanked. She concluded her tenure at FIS as Senior Vice Present and General Manager of Retail Payments, where she was responsible for e-commerce, check cashing and retail payments.
