

MoneyGram to Reschedule Fourth Quarter 2020 Results

February 18, 2021

Due to unprecedented winter storms and resulting power outages, the Company will postpone the conference call to Monday, February 22 at 9 a.m. ET

DALLAS, Feb. 18, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- MoneyGram International, Inc. (Nasdaq: MGI), a global leader in cross-border P2P payments and money transfers, today announced that it will postpone the conference call scheduled to discuss its fourth quarter and year-end financial results. The Company will now hold the conference call on Monday, February 22 at 9 a.m. ET.

This decision is in light of the unprecedented winter storm currently impacting Texas and other regions of the United States causing ongoing power outages, internet service interruptions and water supply issues which continue to significantly disrupt the lives of our employees, customers and other stakeholders. MoneyGram's global service operations are unaffected by the current severe weather conditions impacting Texas and other regions of the United States.

All other information will remain the same. Alex Holmes, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Larry Angelilli, Chief Financial Officer, and Kamila Chytil, Chief Operating Officer, will discuss the financial results. The news release and the webcast will be available at ir.moneygram.com. Participants may join the call and view the presentation at the numbers and link below:
